THE DEEP END WEEPING AND WAILING

'At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn'. This line from today's Psalm tells us something about the theme of our readings, which focus on death and resurrection. It tells us that darkness and death are not the end; there is morning and there is hope.

There were plenty of tears in the house Jesus visited in today's Gospel. Jairus' 12-year-old daughter, who was ill, had died. People were weeping and wailing. We can imagine the scene; every death is a painful and sorrowful occasion, but the death of a child is all the more tragic. Worse still, Jairus had come to Jesus looking for help while his young daughter was still alive, but Jesus had got there too late.

However in this case, death does not have the last word. Jesus raises the child from death. It is a very dramatic story that foreshadows his own death and resurrection. Jesus overcomes death here, just as he will overcome his own death, and ours.

For those of us who doubt, and who find it hard to accept the harsh reality of death – and that is surely all of us at times – Jesus has some words of consolation: 'Do not be afraid; only have faith'. Death is not the end; it is the gateway to new life.

Those who have passed from this life, he takes by the hand and invites into their new life with him with a gentle word of welcome: 'I tell you to get up'.

SVP – CHARITY SHOP, VINCENT'S

Vincent's are appealing for donations of good quality clothes, shoes, household goods, toys and books, as well as small items of furniture in good condition. Regrettably we cannot accept Electrical items, Duvets, Pillows or Child Car Seats. Vincent's provides much-needed financial support to fund the main work of the Society in the area. The support of the public, both in supplying quality items in good condition for sale in the shop, and as customers in the shop, is very much appreciated by the members of the Society, and we would like to take this opportunity to express our thanks for all the support we receive. The shop is open Monday to Saturday, 10am to 5.15pm.
